Da Brat-Intro

Welcome to the wonderful world of Miss Kelly Rowland
And im your host Da Brat tat-tat
So-So Def is in the building

Da Brat (Rap)

I gotta shake you off you like bad habit
That i gotta break so im taking off
Mistaking it all
All in ya face
At point blank range dont play with my heart
I was loyal, i was kind
I was a fool cause i was blind
Thought i was the one me the two
I was three times a lady for you
Creepin' in and out, sleeping all around
Think you a balla now?
I gotta trick for that booty
You a thing in the past
Where ya ??? callin' now
You'll never find another peach thats sweet as mine
Another river that's deep as mine
What you lose somebody else gon' find

Kelly (Verse 1)

Late night i hear you creepin'
4am footsteps laying there pretending that im sleeping
Laying there wondering (wondering)
Where you been (wondering) who she is
I wonder why you wake up, get dressed and step right out again
This has gotta end
A fight we'll never win (win) it's just to deep to miss
I guess im to far in
If i continue to stay with you (you'll do it again)
I know you'll do it again
Yea you'll do it again

Hook

Never thought i could leave ya
Had to take back the rest of me
To get back the best of me

And no longer make believe
I tried to stay with you
But you never worked it out
You gave me strength to leave (leave)

Chorus

Ladies if you feel me say
Hi-Yo, Hi-Yo
If ya fed up say
I can't do this no more
Ladies if you feel me say
Hi-Yo, Hi-Yo

Kelly (Verse 2)

For a second you had me down
But now im doing fine
(boy you thought i would take you back)
But it wont happen this time
Cause all the times that i took you back
The times couldnt find yo ass
(from calls from the chicks you had)
This part of the story is all you have (see me in the club) See me in the club
(i was looking fine) I was looking
(seen you in the club with alot on your mind) Yea

Why you look so sad
Still wish you was my man
Boy dont you make me laugh

Cause i aint wanna say nuttin that'll mess us up

And i hurt so bad that it felt like a hole in my soul
