Late night, phone calls every other night you're going out tryna give you your space you keep on showing out I'm just so sick of it
i want to pack my sh
but something keeps pulling me back i, just can't walk away when i still believe that you gon' act right and be the way that you used to be don't want to be a fool just wanna be with you and all i really need to know is what you wanna do i hold you down always, without a doubt I'm tryna be patient but your time is running out where did we go wrong?

why so many changes babe?

when I'm telling you I'm gonna leave it really means that this is where i want to be
i stick around cos i just want you to love me better,
baby
i just want you to love me better if you tellin' me you're gonna change and then you turn around and do the same thang
i stick around cos i just want you to love me better,

you can't tell me that it's just my insecurity when you already know things ain't quite what they used to be boy whatchu do to me?
you keep confusing me I'm not saying I'm perfect but I'll try and the love you used to give i just don't get no more and me never complaining made you comfortable don't want us to end this way so tell me why should i stay?

we can't keep playing this game they gotta stop now don't want to say good-bye and i don't want to cry

maybe i'm crazy for thinking that you were gonna change
or maybe it could just be me am i not loving you the same? reminiscing on how we used to be makes the thought of losing you so hard for me and, i can't let you go i really want to let you know that i can't put myself through this pain

i just want you to love me better (repeat x2)
