I am so in love
I am so in hate
I just can't comprehend it, uh
You get me so high
You get me so low
I can't show what I'm feelin'
Never was the type
To let someone like
You get under my skin, no
Tried like hell but you
Didn't care for real
You stepped on my feelings

See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go

Love to feel the love
Love to heal from pain
Is there really a difference?
Wonder who is right
Wonder who is wrong
I'm just feeling some tension, uh
You can't compromise
We can't coincide
We should really be chillin'
'Cause I've wasted so much time
Love is on the line
I've made my decision
Yeah

It's useless to try and work things out
Don't need all of the stress
You're not worth it
I'm tired of all the ups and downs
So goodbye, I'm leaving
Made up my mind

See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
But I got to let you know
I'ma have to let you go

It's useless to try and work things out
I'm tired of all the ups and downs
So goodbye, I'm leaving
Made up my mind

See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you

See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
I'ma have to let you go
See I love to love you boy
And I love to hate you
