Everybody's saying that we should get back together,
and everybody's saying that were meant to be together.

Everybody's saying how the love was so damn perfect, and i ain't saying the bad of it, don't think it's worth it.

'Cos they ain't been through the things you put me
through,
and they ain't see all the the things i see in you.
and they ain't cried the tears you made me cry,
so they can't be the judge 'cos...

They don't know,
what i know,
They never see that part of you,
they know the lie's, i know the truth.
They say stay, (they say stay)
i say go, (i say go)
They never see our scars before
They think our love is beautiful.

'Cos everything is beautiful when you are looking
through
Rose coloured glasses.
Everthing seems amazing when you see through
Rose coloured glasses.
Take 'em off.

Everybody's thinking that i was just too scared to love
you,
You got them on, but leave (them or him) there,
i'm folding under pressure.
It's crazy how i gave my best,
i tried so hard to love you,
i can't believe all this time, my pain just bought you pleasure.
they ain't see all the the things i see in you.

They ain't cried the tears you made me cry,
so they can't be the judge 'cos...

They don't know,

what i know,
They never see that part of you,
they know the lie's, i know the truth.
They say stay, (they say stay)
i say go, (i say go)
They never see our side before
They think our love is beautiful.

'Cos everything is beautiful when you are looking
through
Rose coloured glasses.
Everything seems amazing when you see them through
Rose coloured glasses.
Take 'em off.

Hey (take them off)
no (take them off)
Yeah (echo)
Take them off, take them off.

Take them off (ooooh)
Take them off (ooooh)
Take them off, off, off
'Cosss...

They don't know,
what i know,
They never see that part of you,
they know the lie's, i know the truth.
They say stay, (they say stay)
i say go, (i say go)
They never see our side before
They think our love is beautiful.

'Cos everything is beautiful when you are looking
through
Rose coloured glasses.
Everthing seems amazing when you see them throught
Rose coloured glasses.
Take 'em off.
