Send my hopes and dreams to the sky.

My love leaves me cold inside.

In a circle lies my fate.

I'm frozen.

Fragile moments spent with you.

Now past five before there too.

For time can only heal these wounds.

I'm broken.

Oh

Let the walls close in around my heart.

Let your words haunt me.

A thousand goodbyes could never disguise.

For eternity

will be the start.

When the end, you see

hides in the shadows and won't set you free.

Won't set you free.

Patience how I call on you.

For there's nothing I can do.

To change the one thing I desire.

To change everything.

Oh

Let the walls close in around my heart.

Let your words haunt me.

A thousand goodbyes could never disguise.

For eternity

Will be the start.

When the end, you see.

Hides in the shadows and won't set you free.

Oh

An eternity is what I face now

With a beginning in the past.

Brand new in the future.

Oh
