Hollow and see-through
Cut just like a jewel
I find myself in your reflection
Bottled up inside
A heart that's crystallized
You're impervious to my affections
Fragile from the thought
Of what made you who you are
You'll never shatter for another
Broken by the sound
Who will love you now?
When you're just the

Glass made man
The glass made man
Let me humanize you
Glass made man
The glass made man
I don't want to break you

Thought I saw a sign
Vital and divine
The moment of your human nature
The closer I become
My fingers turning numb
I turn into a frozen figure
A memory in my eyes
Of love unrealized
I never want to fall another
Now I can repair
Always in despair
Dreaming of the

Glass made man
The glass made man

Let me humanize you
Glass made man
The glass made man
I don't want to break you

Into pieces
Into fragments
And leave you in dust
Let me revive you
I won't remind you
That you were just

The glass made man,
The glass made man,
Let me humanize you
Glass made man
The glass made man
I don't want to break you

Glass made man
The glass made man
Let me humanize you
Glass made man
The glass made man
I don't want to break you
I don't want to break you
The glass made man
