Your breath on the glass
Draw a heart and smile back at me,
Lights in your eyes,
Never mind glowing red and green,
Lips turning blue when we kiss,
It's so warm inside,
Well in the end, tonight.

Walking with you a new white skies and moonlight,
I'm lost in these moments with you.

And the snow is falling,
And my heart is racing,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.

Rosed cheeks I'm blushing,
Can't hold back this feeling,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.

Hot chocolate,
Won't forget the way you looked at me,
Stars on the trees can't you see?

Walking with you a new white skies and moonlight,
I'm lost in these moments with you.

And the snow is falling,
And my heart is racing,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.

Rosed cheeks I'm blushing,
Can't hold back this feeling,
'Cause I'm with you,

I'm with you tonight.

Oh I'm so in love,
So in love with you.

I've been waiting all my life for you, for you.

And the snow is falling,
And my heart is racing,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.

And the snow is falling,
And my heart is racing,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.

Rosed cheeks I'm blushing,
Can't hold back this feeling,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.

And the snow is falling,
And my heart is racing,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.

Rosed cheeks I'm blushing,
Can't hold back this feeling,
'Cause I'm with you,
I'm with you tonight.
