Came home a little early last night shed not a tear when I turned out the light No I don't hurt like I used to Didn't wait for the knock on my door drawer in the room ain't empty anymore
So many got it tougher than I do
But I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you

Time flies and you just know time to think about lettin'
go
Times I even forget to be blue Big feet to shuffle them sands leave no trail and slip right through your hands Done every little thing I know to do
But I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you

And I said hail the western bound with it's black tail flying Lay on the rails and leave me to dream of where your love was mine

[guitar]
Time flies and you just know time to think about lettin'
Times I even forget to be blue
But I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not
forgotten you
No I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you
Hey I have not forgotten I have not forgotten I have not forgotten you
