Her lipstick is a bold red
Her shoes are every color
People love to stare
As she walks down the hall
People point and laugh
But all she knows is
She don't care

Chorus:
She's a circus freak
She is so unique
She has a contagious laugh
She just can't blend in
Her socks are both different
All she wants is to stand right out
She's a stand out circus

She's obsessed with her hair
She finds it scene
She gets along with everything
She's the sweetest girl
If you don't know her then don't judge her
She is so pretty
She finds everything nice

Chorus:
She's a circus freak
She is so unique
She has a contagious laugh
She just can't blend in
Her socks are both different
All she wants is to stand right out

Every person is the same
Never different
Everything is lame
So not different
The only thing left to do is
To join her stand out circus

Chorus:

She's a circus freak
She is so unique
She has a contagious laugh
She just can't blend in
Her socks are both different
All she wants is to stand right out

Yeah, the stand
Out
Circus
