I'll give you all my heart, all the time Through the rays of the sun, through the darkness of night
I'll sing you melody that it'll make you see Through the windows of time, heal all your heartaches
And while you're strong enough to let love
Let it set you free, ooh, ooh girl, yeah

I'll heed your every word, your every phrase I'll remember what you say, all your memories will be mine
You will never have to roam, you are always home
Have your refuge in my heart, our love is sacred
And while you're strong enough to let love,
Let it set you free, let it set you free, yeah, heh, yeah

You've gotten over breaking your heart, there's no better place to be So open it up, come go with me and let love set you free Heh, let it set you free, girl, ooh, heh, yeah let it set you
free

Through the rays of the sun, through the darkness of
night (Come on babe, let it set you free) I'll remember what you say, all your memories will be
mine
(Let it set you free)
You will never have to roam, have your refuge in my heart
(You'll never have to roam, let it set you free)
I will never leave your side, we can make it (I will never leave your side, let it set you free)

heart
(Let it set you free)
I will never leave your side, we can make it (Come on baby, let it set you free girl)
heart

(Let it set you free, baby)
I will never leave your side, we can make it (Come on, don't you want go girl? Yeah, let it set you free)

heart
(Girl, let it set you free)
I will never leave your side, we can make it
