It all seems so pointless to say
When words are just walking away
You're making this up as you go
Holding my dreams to make them your own

It's not supposed to happen this way
A head full of thought needs a break
From all these mistakes that we made
Spreading myself to thin

Chorus

But I never found the words
Words that you can see
Words that could keep you with me
And I know you may find this hard to believe
Somehow wherever you are

We just need to find some escape
When the best thing is walking away
But I'm holding you up as you go
Taken my dreams and made them your own

It's not supposed to happen this way
When everyone here needs a break
From countless mistakes that we made
Spreading myself to thin

Chorus

All your lies
All your smiles
All your friends are driving me wild
All your days
All your nights
All of those things that we learn to despise
If we breathe in the night
Hold it inside
The colors won't change with the blink of an eye
If we just find a way to believe
But I never found the words
