"Waiting For Silence"

Visit "Waiting For Silence" on MotoLyrics.com

You can't watch the clouds roll by this time
You don't wanna be so blind you're fine
But I'm miles above your head
Life lies in shattered dreams always, always

Chorus

You're not waving but drowning it all
You don't care where your pieces will fall
They wait for silence
When they're leaving you there

You can't find your piece of mind with lies
But you've never been so blind you're fine
I'm no where to be found
Life lies in shattered dreams always, always

Chorus

For all the same reasons they leave you there
