She fell apart
And I fell to pieces
We held on as long as we could
The weight of my world
Has been waiting forever to pull us apart
It finally won

Life made her leave
When she just wanted to be with me
What kind of irony's that
We can't find another way
I'd give it all to let her stay
This time is too much to ask of her
She won't be waiting forever
I'll find her as fast as I can

Hey you
Take a look at me now
Yeah
Remember my face
Remember my name
Believe it or not
Yeah
The best thing to do
Is leave here today
Baby I love you so
But I know it's better this way

Some things are meant to be hard
Some things are just meant to be
Sometimes they're the same
Like collisions of pain
Till you fight your way through
To the other side
She won't be fighting forever
I'll find her as fast as I can

Hey you
Take a look at me now
Yeah

Remember my face

Remember my name
Believe it or not
Yeah
The best thing to do
Is leave here today
Baby I love you so
But I know that it's better this way

Don't break from the wings
While you shake from the cold
Don't heed the mistakes that we've made

Hey you
Take a look at me now
Yeah
Remember my face
Remember my name
Believe it or not
Yeah
The right thing to do
Is leave here today
Baby I love you so
But I know that it's better

Hey you
Take a look at me now
Yeah
Remember my face
Remember my name
Believe it or not
Yeah
The right thing to do
Is leave here today
Baby I love you so
But I know that it's better this way
