You think we're broken
What if we're just a little cracked
I know we're choking on the little things that seem to come with time
One word and watch our armies brawl
No one will bend until one falls
We used to fight but you for me
and me for you
Tied up without the words that might cut through

It's like trying to teach blue to a blind man
Rude to a kind man
Or walking on the sun
You try and I do all that I can
But teaching blue to a blind mind
Can't be done

We used our soldiers
And it was us against the world
The toll was taken now
We're buried under life that comes with time
One word and watch our egos brawl
No one will bend until one falls
We used to fight but you for me
and me for you

It's like trying to teach blue to a blind man
Truth to a lie
And walking on the sun
I try and I do all that I can
But teaching blue to a blind mind
Can't be done

We can go home
You can sleep
And I can think for a while
We can't go on and on on empty
On endless oceans dry

It's like trying to teach blue to a blind man
Rude to a kind man
Screaming at the sun

You try and I do all that I can
But teaching blue to a blind mind
Can't be done
Can't be done

Teaching blue to a blind mind
