The one that I love has gone and left me
Left me here to stay
Won't somebody help me, help me to find her?
And all my troubles will be over

Won't someone help me find her, my pretty little baby?
Won't someone help me find her?

Ever since she's been gone, my heart is in pain
And anything I do, lord, I do it just in vain
Won't somebody show me, show me, baby, show me
the way?
To bring back my baby here to stay

Won't someone help me find her, my little baby?
Won't someone help me find her?
Someone help me to find my pretty little girl
Someone, someone, give me, give me...
