

Ken Mellons

"Lookin' In The Same Direction"

Visit "Lookin' In The Same Direction" on MotoLyrics.com

She rides in a rag top sports car
I drive a pickup truck
She always plays the safe side
I like to gamble on my luck
She has a taste for fine champagne
I drink a honky tonk wine
You wouldn't think there'd be an inch of common ground
Between her world and mine

(Chorus)

We may not see eye to eye
But we're lookin' in the same direction
Who's to say who's wrong or right
As long as we make a connection
The love we have between us
Is as close as we'll come to perfection
We may not see eye to eye
But we're lookin' in the same direction
She was raised on eay street
Her daddy was worth a lot
I was brought up the hard way
Had to scrape for every dime I got
She belongs to the evenin' bridge club
And I'm into late night poker games
We're both as different as different as daylight and dark
But love finds us the same

(Repeat chorus)

We may never see eye to eye
But we're lookin' in the same direction

Visit Ken Mellons page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.