You're standing there that look in your eyes
You're looking for good ways to tell me goodbye
Something 'bout people, how they never know
Them loving somebody and then letting them go
You're looking for reasons and there ain't no need
You can blame it on me

Chorus

Blame it on me. I was the one
I had no right to turn it all wrong
Held you too close I couldn't let go
Can't lose your cool baby these days I know
So I'll go on home and you can feel free
To Blame it on me

I am too rough, I work too hard
Got no cool friends. I drive an old car
I'm not the picture of anyone's dream full of blue bonnets, boots and old jeans
You're looking for reasons both there ain't no need
You can blame it on me

Chorus

Blame it on me. I was the one
Acting like real life was some ole love song
Held you too close I couldn't let go
Can't lose your cool baby these days I know
So I'll go on home and you can feel free
To Blame it on me

Bridge

When you starting looking for ways out of love then
I've been making mistakes by the dozen
So if you want to leave You can blame it on me

Held you too close I couldn't let go
Can't lose your cool baby these days I know
So I'll go on home and you can feel free
To Blame it on me
