You're giving up what you love for what you love You're giving up what you need for what you need and the sad irony you think were you want to be don't include me, but what if it does?

Chorus

You could have everything and you could have love I'll give you the air I breathe
we can share our dreams
we can have everything
and we have love
isn't that enough for you?
isn't that enough for you?

Both of us are reeling from the words we throw like knives can we stop the bleeding? Is it too late to try? before the landslide takes us and tears us both apart don't let it drown what we know is in our hearts

Chorus

I'm here to make it easy I'm here to say, "you're right" I've come to let you go now I've come to say goodbye if that's what you want if that's what you need

You could have everything
and you could have love
I'll give you the air I breathe
we can share our dreams
we can have everything
isn't that enough for you?
isn't that enough for you?

You're giving up what you need for what you need
