She was 21 with a rock n roll soul cutting her teeth on that rebel radio.
Sounded like Emmy Lou Harris and the Rolling Stones Searching for the beat in the heart of the nation Founding her sound like a sweet salvation Someday soon that sound's gonna carry her home
She had 27 dollars and 17 cents
She filled up the tank she has been back since (she said)

Chorus
I'm free to do what I wanna Free yeah I think I'm gonna Free to do what I was born to do

He was just a kid working the grave yard shift his whole world changed when she rolled in she said so much without so much as saying a word

Believe me he heard 'Cuz he left that job at 7 AM been chasing his dreams now ever since then he said I'm free..... chorus

I think it's been about 1/2 dozen years 1/4 million miles and we're still out here no matter where we go I know we're never alone
'cuz we're all part of a big ole race of chasing our dreams and by God's Grace Someday, somewhere, somehow we're gonna find our way home

Chorus

We're all free to do what we wanna Free yeah I think we oughta
Be free to do what we were born to do How 'bout you?
