And I confess my love is stumbling on heels
as high as the ego that they gave to you
A portrait so well painted now locked in the ink
A cross-stitch so well sewn now bound in the thread.

As you write these notes that try to explain to me the way that all stars seem to.
But hopefully ill avoid the worst thing they created the most amazing fake mistake.

Lights cameras action again.

And i confess my love is stumbling on heels
as high as the ego that they gave to you
A portrait so well painted now locked in the ink

A cross-stitch so well sewn now bound in the thread.

What was golden has now been dulled since we last met those locketts have rusted as bad as your Nails that are painted the same color as your dress you wear to match the scenery To emphasize your deadly radiance that cant be described

And you should win an award for your lifetime achievement of deceivment you play oh so well make up why thank you now say goodbye make out? why thank you now say goodnight
