Feels like a fire burns in my heart every single moment that we spend apart
I need you around for every day to start
I haven't left you alone

Something about you is there in your eyes, everything I'm looking for I seem to find
All this time away, is killing me inside
I need your love in my life

(Chorus)

I want to spend time til it ends
I want to fall with you again
Like we did, when we first met
I want to fall with you again

Fought in battle, nobody won Left ourselves a mountain to be overcome
You can't turn away, the past is said and done
I need us to carry on

(Chorus)

You'll try everything you never thought would work before
When you live for your love and you've given your all, you can always give 'em some more Baby, nothing means anything unless you're here to share with me
I can breathe, I can live, I can die in my sleep cause you're always there in my dreams

(Chorus) x2
