ONCE IN A LIFETIME

Kenny Loggins and Human Nature
Runaway Bride

Something about you
Oh, could it be I finally found
My destiny
Now here you are Within my reach

How did I miss you? (how did I miss you)
When you were out there all the time
It took this moment
To make me realize...

Once in a Lifetime
You find your reason for living
You find the one that makes your every dream
Come true
(Find the one that makes your dreams...)
Oh I could search the world forever
But no one else could do
Cause once in a lifetime
You find someone like you

Ahh..
Once in a lifetime, ohh

I've waited for so long (so long)
Makin this can't nothin be but a lie
Cause all about
Standing by wind, oohh
Alone in the crowd, oh oh oh

I went through the motion (went through the motion)
Then out of heaven you arrived
Whatever was wrong
Suddenly is right

Cause once in a lifetime
You find the reason for living

You find the one who makes your every dream
Come true
(Find the one who makes your dream...)
No, I could search the world forever
And no one else would do
Cause once in a lifetime
You find someone like you

(Find someone like you...)
Hearts that wait for love can grow so weary
(Don't you know... a heart can grow?)
But it doesn't matter anymore
When you find the one you've waited for...

You find your reason for living
You find the one that makes your every dream come ... oh you make it come true
Oh you could search the world forever
But no one else would do
Cause once in a lifetime
You find someone like you.....

Cause once in a lifetime
You find someone.....
Someone like you.....

(Ahhh...)
Whoaaa.....
