A Years Worth of Distance Lyrics

Artist(Band):Kenny Loggins

All I want is the truth

I guess that's just too much to ask of you

Cause every time we come face to face

It takes me back in time and space

Girl I can hardly breathe

It's like you got a hold of my heart

And you're tearing it out of me

Here I'm never getting over you

I got one shot

I know what I gotta do

(Chorus)

All that I need's

A second of silence

A moment of grace

A breath of clean air

In a wide open place

With a blue horizon slidin' into view

A hundred miles of highway'll

Make a new man of me

With nothing but beginnings as far as I can see

Girl I know the place I'm comin' to

It's just a years worth of distance from you

Don't know what it's gonna take

But from here on

I'm runnin' on blind faith

"N the only way I'm getting' through

Is to walk on from now on

Without you

Repeat chorus

A hundred miles of highway'll

Make a new man of me

With nothing but beginnings as far as I can see

Girl I know the best thing I can do

It's just a years worth of distance from you

Everything you were to me
Everything you touch
I oughta hate you girl
But I still love you too much

A hundred miles of highway'll
Make a new man of me
With nothing but beginnings as far as the eye can see
Girl I know the place I'm comin' to

It's just a years worth of distance from you
To build up my resisitance
I'll take a years worth of distance
Distance from you
