"Back Girl"

You must learn, to talk away
From that lover, I know another game to play
Say! Passions burns, it's not too late
To loose that infatuation

Just say you won't
Need him again, leave him, like he left ya
It's a mixed up thing
But - I know a way that you can win -

Back, back, back, back girl you
Stay away from that boy
That isn't love he's dealing
Back, back, back, back girl you
Fool around with that boy
And you'll feel the hurt that I'm feeling

Darkness falls, just walk away
There be another, who makes
You feel that way

Wind of change, blowing strong today
You'll find a better vocation

Just say you won't
Need him again, leave him, like he left ya
It's a mixed up thing
But - I know a way that you can win

Stop running
Stop running, running back for more
Just stop the tears 'cause I know that boy
Is not worth crying for
