You've seen the way she pushes me around You've seen her built me up then tear me down You've seen this much but haven't seen it all stick around and see Ruby fall
She knows her way to strip me of my pride
She stood and laughed while I sat there and cried She'll soon find out just how it feels to crawl stick around and see Ruby fall See Ruby fall helplessly she's found someone who treats her like she treated me When she finds out that love is not a game she'll realize she's got herself to blame She played with love and now she's lost it all

Don't look for me when you see Ruby fall I won't be there when you see Ruby fall
