"Lost Up In Loving You"

On a quiet night,
When things are alright,
You come into my heart.

Stone, in love with you,
like a fool, i've been loving you,
and I never want to stop this sweet sensation.
I love being lost up in love with you.

Time dont mean no thing.
Now happiness is all you bring,
In this world, so ununique, so disenchanting.
I love being lost up in love with you.

Having you this way means so much to me.
You bring so much of your life in love to me.
Can't you see?

on a quiet night,
when things are alright,
you come into my heart.

So tenderly,
A love, so real,like you and me.
Flying in the sky, as high as you can go.
I love being lost up in love with you.(3x)
