Why do people cry when they hear
The word goodbye in a love song?
Tears are sure to fall when you know
They gave it all in a love song

Somehow two lovers get a chance
At a beautiful romance
And you wish it could be you

'Cause everybody's needing
What the singers all are singing
In a love song

It can tear you apart 'cause a word
Can break a heart in a love song
They say all the things you feel
And they make it sound so real in a love song

It seems that everything they say
Is said in such a way
That we believe it's true

'Cause everybody's needing
What the singers all are singing
In a love song

Each of us know there's no guarantee
We'll ever find love
And in the songs that we share
The heartache is there to remind us

New love brings a thrill and we know
It always will in a love song
Happiness can leave but it helps
If we believe in a love song
There's a part of you and me
In every memory that tells us who we are

And everybody's needing
What the singers all are singing
In a love song

And everybody's needing
What the singers all are singing
In a love song
