A little baby's born, daddy's up and gone
You see his mama cry
Don't you turn away, she's needing you today
To help her dry her eyes

All God's lovely children
Sometimes lose their ways
All God's lovely children
Need your love today

Met a little man, reaching out his hand
He's reaching out for you
Won't you take his hand? Help him understand
And try to see him through

All God's lovely children
Sometimes lose their ways
All God's lovely children
Need your love today

Love my people, it's right in the steeple
It's in your heart and in your hands
Open up your heart, reach out your hands
And then you'll begin to understand

Why all God's lovely children
Sometimes lose their ways
All God's lovely children
Need your love today
