I could follow Him, I could pledge my faith
Bound by duty I could honor and obey
But the love I found is compelling me
To serve Him from a heart that's been redeemed

I would give my all, everything I've got
To the highest call, for the Love of God
Every day I live, I'd give no matter what
I will do it all, for the love of God

May I never serve from a heart of fear
Thinking only that the end is drawing near
Oh but Lord I pray, that in all I do
I'll be driven only by what pleases You

I would give my all, everything I've got
To the highest call, for the Love of God
Every day I live, I'd give no matter what
I will do it all, for the love of God

No greater motivation, there is no higher cause
My one and only reason remains the love of God

I would give my all, everything I've got
To the highest call, for the Love of God
Every day I live, I'd give no matter what
I will do it all, for the love of God
