A two room house on an acre lot
It ain't much but it's all they got
Boy, sometimes it sure seems a lot
To keep up on her own

Pile of bills, a load of clothes
Wipin' tears from a two year old
Makin' sure supper's on
Before he makes it home

In her mind, she hears him say
"I'm gonna make it better someday"

He will, she knows
He's gonna build their dreams
A little further down the road
Her faith, it shows
Even if the whole world says, he won't
He will

He spends all day underneath the hood
Makin' Chevrolet run like they should
He don't like it much but the pay is good
That's enough to make him stay

He's workin' lots of overtime
'Cause he's got a little plan in mind
For a hill off Highway 109
That he drives by everyday

Sometimes money's hard to save
But if anyone can find a way

He will, she knows
He's gonna build their dreams
A little further down the road
Her faith, it shows
Even if the whole world says, he won't
He will, she knows

And every night, he holds her close and she believes
If anyone can make it more than just a dream

He will, she knows
He's gonna build their dream
A little further down the road
Her faith, it shows
(Her faith, oh, it shows)
Even if the whole world says, he won't
He will
(Oh, he will)
He will
(Yes, he will)
She knows
