If there's a way of makin' time stand still for good
I haven't found it yet
If I could love you for eternity, I would
But I regret

I've only got one life, I've only got one life
An' one lifetime's just not long enough to live
I've only got one heart, I've only got one heart
And I wish, I had a hundred more to give
Girl, there's so little time and so much I want to do
But I've only got one life to love someone like you

Can't take my eyes off you, I'm afraid of what I'll miss
It goes by so fast
So I'll treat each moment that I've been blessed with you
Like it's the last

I've only got one life, I've only got one life
An' one lifetime's just not long enough to live
I've only got one heart, I've only got one heart
And I wish, I had a hundred more to give
Girl, there's so little time and so much I want to do
But I've only got one life to love someone like you
And I've only got one life and I give it all to you
