Call me a fool, send me away
I've got to say, it's you I adore
I'm alone in love, falling apart
I followed my heart straight to your door

Face to face with all honesty
I would be grateful if you'd give to me

Just one night to lay in your arms
Give me just one night, could it be that I was born
To make every dream you ever had come true
In just one night, woh woh woh, one night with you

Standing this close, the sound of your voice
Leads me no choice, I offer my love
Am I so wrong to think you might fall
'Cos baby you're all, I can think of

Face to face with all honesty
I would be grateful if you'd give to me

Just one night, lay in your arms
Give me just one night, could it be that I was born
To make every dream you ever had come true
In just one night, woh woh woh, one night with you

Face to face with all honesty
I would be grateful if you'd give to me

Just one night lay in your arms
Give me just one night, could it be that I was born
For one night give me just one more night
Give me, give me, you got to give me one night
Give me just one night
