It's just her and the band and the clean up man
She's counting up her tips, she did alright
She says good-night
She drives home to a three-room flat
Checks her machine and she feeds the cat
She's almost asleep, before she turns out the light

Chorus:

In her dreams, she rides wild horses
And they carry her away on the wind
And they never make a sound
As they fly above the ground
Tonight, she rides wild horses, again

She's fallen in love a time or two
Somehow it always fell through
But she's strong, she carries on
Her life ain't always gonna be this way
She knows she's gonna shine someday
But for now, she'll escape until the dawn

Chorus:

In her dreams, she rides wild horses
And they carry her away on the wind
And they never make a sound
As they fly above the ground
Tonight, she rides wild horses, again

In her dreams, she rides wild horses
And they carry her away on the wind
And they never make a sound
As they fly above the ground
Tonight, she rides wild horses, again

In her dreams, she rides wild horses
And they carry her away on the wind
And they never make a sound
As they fly above the ground
Tonight, she rides wild horses, again
