They say you can't keep a good man down
Sooner or later, he'll come back around
Risin' up on his own two feet
Might have been down but he can't be beat

The pride is back, born in America
The pride is back, born in America
The best is born in America
Again

This is the place, the promised land
This is the place where you'll make your stand
Rivers of freedom run deep
Where you climb any mountain, no matter how steep

The pride is back, born in America
The pride is back, born in America
The best is born in America
Again

Born special, born blessed
Born different from all the rest
I wanna live in the land of the free
Teach my children what my daddy taught me

The pride is back, born in America
The pride is back, born in America
The best is born in America
Again

The pride is back, born in America
The pride is back, born in America
The best is born in America
Again

Ohh, I wanna live, I wanna live, land of the free
Teach my children what my daddy taught me
Born, born, born in America
Again
