It's been a long time since I walked through this old town
But oh, how the memories start to flow
And there's the old movie house
They finally closed it down
You could find me there every Friday night
Twenty years ago

I worked the counter at the drugstore down the street
But nobody's left there I would know On Saturday mornings that's where all my friends would meet You'd be surprised what a dime would buy
Twenty years ago
All my memories from those days come gather round me What I'd give if they could take me back in time
It almost seems like yesterday
Where do the good times go?
Life was so much easier
Twenty years ago

I guess I should stop by Mr. Johnson's hardware store
His only son was my friend Joe
But he joined the army back in 1964
How could we know he would never come back
Twenty years ago
