It's hard to say goodbye,
You're much more than a friend.
When good times become memories,
They never really end.
Like ancient rites of passage
It's time to carry on,
We caught lightning in a bottle
As we went along.

We've got it all,
Wouldn't change a minute
We've got it all,
Never will forget it
As years go slipping by us
You know we will recall,
These times we've found together,
We've got it all.

Long goodbyes never suited you and me.
You know if God is willing
We'll go on eternally.

We've got it all,
Never will forget it.
As years go slipping by us
You know we will recall,
These times we've found together,
We've got it all
