We were all we ever wanted
Before there was a single brick in this wall
That keeps the distance here between us
We built ourselves a life and we forgot
We already had it all

When we made love, we made love
Baby, we have something
That nothing else could touch
When we made love

Through the lonely that divides us
I can feel you're reaching from the other side
Let's tear down this wall and start all over
And we'll get back to the simple life

When we made love, we made love
Baby, we had something
That nothing else could touch
When we made love

Just pass the doubts beyond the hurt
We're not too far from where we were

When we made love, we made love
Baby, we've got something
That nothing else can touch
When we made love

Baby, we've got something
That nothing else could touch
When we made love

Isn't it something, girl
When we made love
