If I tried to find the word to let you know
How I feel inside my heart, where would I start
If I had to say how high you lift me up when we touch
There'd be no way, I couldn't say
It'd be like an eagle, trying to tell you
How it would feel to fly above the world below you.

There's no way I could ever explain
How deep my love really goes, you have no idea
You could only guess how far I'd go
And what I'd do to keep you safe, don't make me say.

When it comes to you I have no fear
I'd risk it all, I'd lay it on the line
Don't ask me why, It'd be like a soldier
Trying to say why he'd stand in fight
Unafraid to give his own life.

There's no way I could ever explain
How deep my love really goes, you have no idea
You could only guess how far I'd go
And what I'd do to keep you safe, don't make me say.

God knows what I'd do, if I had to live without you
I'm convinced myself that I could find another love
Like yours and mine, but in my heart I know
That I'll be lying, It'd be like trying to tell a mother
If she loves to try, she could always have another.

There's no way I could ever explain
How deep my love really goes, you have no idea
You could only guess how far I'd go
And what I'd do to keep you safe, don't make me say...
