A little baby's born
Daddy's up and gone
You see his mama cry
Don't you turn away
She's needing you today
To help her dry her eyes

All God's lonely children
Sometimes lose their way
All God's lonely children
Need your love today

Met a little man
Reaching out his hand
He's reaching out for you
Won't you take his hand
Help him understand
And try to see him through

All God's lonely children
Sometimes lose their way
All God's lonely children
Need your love today

Love my people, it's not in the steeple
It's in your heart and in your hands
Open up your heart and reach out your hands
And then you'll begin to understand

Why all God's lonely children
Sometimes lose their way
All God's lonely children
Need your love today
