Just remember you're my sunshine
When I'm with you I don't feel any pain
Just remember that I love you
Even if I cannot be your man

I'm not leaving you forever
But I got business further down the line
I got to get myself together
You got your troubles, baby, I got mine

Hold on, everything will be alright
Hold on, I got to have just a little more time
Hold on and together we will find
All the answers, all we need is a little more time now

Just remember that I love you
When you got no one to hold your hand
Yes, you know, I'll be back home
Just as soon, just as soon as I can

Hold on, everything will be alright
Hold on, I got to have just a little more time
Hold on and together we will find
All the answers, all we need is a little more time now

Hold on, everything will be alright
Hold on, I got to have just a little more time
Hold on, everything will be alright
Hold on, I got to have just a little more time
Hold on
