

Kenny Rogers & Whitney Duncan

"My World Is Over"

Visit "My World Is Over" on MotoLyrics.com

I didn't look over my shoulder, I wasn't ready for this Didn't see the signs on the horizon
I was so sure that you would never leave but you did

So sweep away the sand and dry the ocean
And just, pack the moon and stars up in a cardboard
box
And stop the clocks from chiming, block the sun from shining
And paint the sky a deeper shade of blue
'Cause my world's over without you

I know I should just keep goin' but I don't know where to start I never thought I'd see the day when You'd go and leave me here with my broken heart but you did

So sweep away the sand and dry the ocean
And just, pack the moon and stars up in a cardboard
box
And stop the clocks from chiming and block the sun from shining
And paint the sky a deeper shade of blue
'Cause my world's over without you

Maybe someday all the pain will fade
Maybe this hurt will slowly slip away
Maybe some things will never change
And I'll still love you

Stop the clocks from chiming and block the sun from shining
And paint the sky a deeper shade of blue
'Cause my world's over without you, my world's over My world's over without you, my world's over

Stop the clocks from chiming and block the sun from
shining
'Cause my world's over without you, my world's over

