Where you've been where you've been it's the same ole question again What's the use baby what's the use they ain't never gonna turn us loose You got dirt all over your face oh and your lipstick is way out of place
Oh we gonna tell 'em what we tell 'em every time before They won't leave us alone they want us to come home
We been busy makin' merries and pickin' wild mountain berries
We're pickin' wild mountain berries that's our excuse every time
But we've been busy makin' merries and pickin' wild mountain berries [banjo]
I don't know oh I don't know if I can keep honey from lettin' it show What's our plan tell me what's our plan now you know they won't understand If my hair is a drippin' wet and my clothes are soakin' wet
And we didn't go skinny dippin' in a cement pond You're my baby you're my man though your hair is sure gettin' to be a mess There ain't no berries in your bucket well'll explain it honey as best as we can

They won't leave us alone...
We're pickin' wild mountain berries...

WE DON'T DESERVE EACH OTHER
(Jerry Lane)
Ã,Â« Â© '70 Yonah Music Ã,Â»

Don't look at me with love in your eyes I don't deserve a place in your life
You know me much too well you should realize I'm not the kind of girl that you'd want for the wife
You seem to waste the tears flowin' after me
And heard the words of sadness that they say

People I meet on the street turn their backs to me While their fingers of gossip point my way We don't deserve each other we're not good enough for us
I can't look down my path I'm not worthy of your trust
We don't deserve each other but love will find a way We'll pretend we're someone else and we only met today [harpsichord]
We don't deserve each other...
