It ain't wrong to feel so strong when you think you got it going on Life has a way of making you pay to the club where we all belong
Now you're free to believe that the good life is guaranteed
But watch your step 'cause it's a safe bet you're gonna end up on your knees

Chorus

You're gonna get spanked
I'm warning you sister
You're gonna get spanked
Life's gonna hit you You'll never know until you get, Spanked
You're gonna be humbled
You're gonna get spanked
And you're world's gonna crumble
You'll never know until you get spanked...

Some do want to prove that there are really just a chosen few
So to test your fate, speculate that it can never really happen to you I've been high, at least tried, I learned to sleep with an open eye
You crossed that line, better take the time to kiss your ass goodbye

(Chorus)

When you're so sure you got it right
All alone in the spotlight You'll never see it coming

(Chorus)
