Everybody's scared that there's a madman on the run
Stumbling through the wreckage like a blind man with a gun
No where to hide..... I'm in too deep.
Can't see the light.... cause I'm in too deep...
Over my head.

Caught up in the hurricane that never seems to end
Hard to know the devil when he looks like your best friend.
No where to hide....
I'm in too deep.
Can't see the light
I'm in too deep... over my head...

[BRIDGE:]
Oh... I should have known, but I can't let go...
Cause I'm in too deep.... over my head.

Over my Head...

[VERSE:]
Oh, soon call somebody the asylum under seige,
The inmates took a hostage I'll be damned if it's not me.
Nowhere to hide.... cause I'm in too deep.
Bury the light... cause I'm in too deep.
Can't see the light.... In too deep.
Bury the light... no... I'm in too deep...
I'm over my head...

Over my head...
Over my head...
