One trip it all came down
you think it's over now.
but its not time to break
there's at least 10 more rounds in this game.

I know the way from here, so I'll go and one day you'll
care.
And everything you say and everything you take could
never make me give in.
So you just give me time and please believe that I'll
forget about this one day.

Cuz I'll try til my whole face goes blue and I cant
breathe
this chance is worth taking.
So take this time, say goodbye cuz I'll follow this road
til the end.

One step the world awaits.
It all begins today.
Just know i didnt break,
this time there's nothing you can say.
I know the way from here, so I'll go and one day you'll
care.
And everything you say and everything you take could
never make me give in.
So you just give me time and please believe that I'll
forget about this one day.

Cuz I'll try til my whole face goes blue and I cant
breathe
this chance is worth taking.
So take this time, say goodbye cuz I'll follow this road
til the end.

They say live and let live, forget but i cant forgive
someone with a heart that cannot give.
There's no room for those so critical of everything
that's meaningful.
I know I'll forget you. I know I'll forget you now
