I'm living dead
Dreaming of ghosts
You've been trying to tell me all this time
And the King's in my head
Sings his songs he's amazing
I've been dreaming of Elvis all my life

So now you're stealing my time
All the hours that I once stole from you
I never thought you would mind
But I can see you do

All skin and bones
All on my own
You've been trying to tell me all this time
And the things in my head
Are slowly driving me crazy
I've been dreaming of Elvis all my life

So now you're stealing my time
All the hours that I once stole from you
I never thought you would mind
But I can see you do

So now you're stealing my time
All the hours that I once stole from you
I never thought you would mind
But I can see you do

So now you're stealing my time
All the hours that I once stole from you
I never thought you would mind
But I guess you do
