

Kent Bottenfield

"Home To Beauty"

Visit "Home To Beauty" on MotoLyrics.com

Just another friday night, just another late night flight
I find it hard to think of anything but you I've been away far too long, playing shows and singing songs
But now I know that I'm coming home to you

Chorus

I'm coming home to beauty, the one that god gave to me
My wife my love I take before the throne I'm coming home to beauty, cause nothing means more to me
Than praying for the ones that are my own Cause when I do I feel like I am home

I just missed another day, a football game the first school play
We're talking on the phone, I hear you cry I hear about the highs and lows, how lucy fell and skinned her nose
Eli made the play that won the game
Emma made a friend today, and treated her a special way
Just so she could share the love of christ

2nd chorus

I'm coming home to beauty, the ones that god gave to
me
My family that I take before the throne
I'm coming home to beauty, cause nothing means
more to me
Than praying for the ones that are my own Cause when I do I feel like, when I do I feel like When I do I feel like I am home

Visit Kent Bottenfield page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.