"They Went"

One long and lonely night
On the way to Bethlehem
Mary and Joseph did not know
What lie ahead of them
They must have asked the question,
"Are we worthy of this call?
"To raise the Son of Heaven
"Who'd be Savior to us all?"

But they went
Knowing they were not alone
Yes, they went
Trusting God would lead them home
There was no valley deep enough
To challenge God's consent
So they went
Oh, so they went

Moses led the Israelites
To the Promised Land
Not by the way of his own might
But by the grace of God's own hand
You know he asked the question,
"Am I worthy of this call?
"To lead Your chosen people
"Far away from the fall?"

But he went
Knowing he was not alone
Yes, he went
Trusting God would lead him home
There was no valley deep enough
To challenge God's consent
So he went
Oh, so he went

The time had come for Jesus
As He fell down in prayer
The cost of our salvation
Was hanging in the air
"Lord, if You will allow it,
"Please let this pass from Me

"But You're the Father, I'm the Son
"And Your will pleases Me"
"Yes, You're the Father, I'm the Son
And Your will pleases Me"

So He went
Knowing He was not alone
Yes, He went
Trusting God would lead Him home
There was no valley deep enough
To challenge God's consent
So He went
Oh, so He went
So He went
Oh, so He went
So He went
Oh, so He went
