Well who's that girl with the sock feet and holy blue jeans the one that dances like a hurricane and shakes it like a washing machine guess i got to get my courage up and tell her i don't know how to dance but if she can hoochie coochie i can hold her tight we can stand in one spot or go honky tonk walkin all night

(chorus)

so lets go honky tonk walkin honky tonk walkin you could be my honky tonk girl so break up the double shuffle its a honky tonk world

We'll go wading in the waters of the rhythm and rhymes in this world when I go Honky tonk walkin with my arms around a honky tonk girl

come on sugar baby well now the party's over and i got no license to drive when she pulls up beside me and says i've got a marvelous ride

Yeah she's under my wheels I'm under the spell of her love but if she can hoochie coochie i can hold her tight we can get out on the road and go honky tonk walkin all night

(chorus)

when i go honky tonk walkin with my arms around a honky tonk girl

I'm goin now
