Peek thru the bathroom door did you ever, did you ever see your sister in the raw
swear you just cruised all night
sweating hard like you're turning white
they're wrong so you're cutting out
back thru the window where the gorge gone out yes you did, he's gone, you did

taps turn on the water
see the waters flow
a corn grains a forest
watch the forest grow everything behind you everything to come come on ride the river come on find the sun

don't there's times together then do it don't try to do the right when there's so much to be done don't there's times to forget that you do it next time do it right
'cus the two believe has come

a corn grains a forest

taps turn on the water

watch the forest grow... (Fading)
